Section C – Criminal convictions declaration

The information in this section is required to check whether you have any past criminal convictions or pending charges that might impact on your ability to be effective in the position.

If you are the preferred candidate for the position, we will confirm the details you have given through a criminal history check carried out by the Ministry of Justice. Only those directly involved in the recruitment, including our agents (and if necessary a legal advisor) will have access to this information prior to your appointment (if you are appointed, your declaration will be filed on your personal file).

The information provided in this section by unsuccessful applicants will be destroyed at the completion of the process.

If you fail to provide relevant information and the Commissioner subsequently discovers that you have a criminal conviction that could not be withheld under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 or a charge was pending at the time of appointment, you may be dismissed.

You may access this information and request its correction.

See ‘Key Legislation’ below for information on the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004.

Section D – Conflict of interest

A conflict of interest means a conflict between a public duty and private and/or personal interests. Personal interests may be financial or relate to family, friends or associates. Conflicts of interest may be actual, potential or perceived. A conflict of interest may happen at any stage during the recruitment process.

You are responsible for advising Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission immediately if you believe there is a possible conflict of interest. Please note that this will not invalidate your application but will be taken into consideration.

Key legislation

Defence Act 1990 The appointment of the Functional Chief Executive, Crown Response Office is made under Schedule 7 clause 3 of the Public Service Act 2020. This legislation sets out procedures to be followed in making these appointments and specifies the respective responsibilities of Ministers and the Commissioner.

Privacy Act 2020 The recruitment process is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 2020. Personal information collected during this appointment process will be used solely for assessing your suitability for employment in this position. It will be held confidentially by the Public Service Commission and the interview panel who will assist the Public Service Commission with this appointment process. Evaluative information will be held in confidence and you do not have right of access to it.

Your authority is needed to gather some of this information and an authorisation section is attached for this purpose. If you are appointed to this position the information will be retained.

Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 [Extract from Ministry of Justice pamphlet ‘Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004’]

You must meet all conditions in section 7 of the Act (a summary is set out below) before your convictions can be withheld. The Act should be consulted for full information (see www.legislation.govt.nz – exceptions to the Clean Slate scheme are found in section 19 of the Act).

You must:

- Have no convictions within the last seven years;
- Never have been sentenced to a custodial sentence e.g. imprisonment, corrective training, borstal;
- Never have been ordered by a Court following a criminal case to be detained in a hospital due to your mental condition instead of being sentenced;
